

The Business Analyst works under minimal supervision with internal stakeholders and customers to identify and validate business needs in order to create well-defined requirements associated with product and service offerings. This position applies a systematic, disciplined, quantifiable approach to the development, operation, and maintenance of software through requirements management. Works with the team in synthesizing internal, customer, and market requirements to support the evolution of FSB products and services.

Responsibilities:

- Work with business and technology team members to ensure seamless integration of business functionality and requirements throughout product releases or projects.
- Responsible for documenting, analysing, designing, and implementing business requirements. within formalized SDLC
- Provide project management support for the implementation of large scale business systems and processes
- Document, analyse and interpret complex business policies and processes
- Manage issues and risks related to requirements
- Manage functional and non-functional requirements throughout SDLC
- Conduct independent research
- Perform functional gap analysis
- Document and perform complex product evaluation and selection activities

Required experience:

Essential special training requirements

- Use Case Development, Software Requirements Specification, Functional Specification, RUP, UML
- Must be familiar with packaged application and have proficiency in Software Requirements and Methodologies.
- Familiarity with Software Design, Software Configuration Management, Software Engineering Process and Software Engineering Management and Software Engineering Quality software and MS Office, MS Project, MS Visio,
- Ability to understand technical architecture concepts
- Ability to understand data architecture concepts
- Excellent Analytical Skills
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Excellent organization skill